

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
EASTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

KENNETH MOORE,

Defendant.

No. 24-CR-1009-CJW-MAR

ASSET FORFEITURE JURY
INSTRUCTION

Members of the Jury:

You have reached a verdict that defendant Kenneth Moore is guilty of the crime of possession of a firearm by a felon, as charged in the Indictment. You now have one more task to perform. I must ask you to render a special verdict concerning property the government has alleged is subject to forfeiture by the defendant to the government.

INSTRUCTION NO. 21

Forfeiture means the defendant loses any ownership or interest he has or claims to have in the property, as a part of the penalty for engaging in criminal activity. The government alleges that certain property should be forfeited. The Indictment alleges property to be forfeited to the government as follows:

Any firearm and ammunition involved in or used in the offense charged in the Indictment, specifically possession of a firearm by a felon, including, but not limited to, the Glock 19, 9x19mm, pistol.

You must determine what property, if any, is subject to forfeiture. Property is subject to forfeiture if the government has proved, by the greater weight of the evidence, that the property was used or was intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit or to facilitate the commission of an offense of which the defendant has been found guilty.

To prove something by the greater weight of the evidence is to prove that it is more likely true than not true. The decision is made by considering all of the evidence on the subject and deciding which evidence you believe. Each party is entitled to the benefit of all evidence received, regardless of who offered the evidence. Greater weight of the evidence is a lesser standard than proof beyond a reasonable doubt.

Property subject to forfeiture may include the Glock 19, 9x19mm, pistol and ammunition, whether or not the property has been seized by the government.

All of my previous instructions apply with respect to this special verdict. A Special Verdict form has been prepared for your use. With respect to the property, you are asked to determine unanimously whether it is to be forfeited to the government.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 2025.
